Statement of Educator Card Privileges and Responsibilities

- This card enables the registrant to borrow books and audiobooks, not DVDS. It is valid at any D.C. Public Library.
- Registrant is responsible for all library materials checked out using this card.
- All materials should be returned promptly. Failure to return materials or replace damaged or lost items can result in suspension of borrowing privileges. The library may resort to legal action to retrieve overdue materials or obtain payment for lost or damaged materials.
- Lost cards and changes in school, home, or email address, should be reported promptly.
- There is a replacement charge for a lost card.
- The card is the property of the D.C. Public Library.
- DCPL is not responsible for lost, stolen, or abandoned cards.
