Please let us know which category best describes your issue*:

☐ Architectural Access - Please check here if the access problem is about a building -- for example, a wheelchair ramp is needed, accessible bathrooms are not available, or counters and phones are not at the correct height for wheelchair users.

☐ Programmatic Access - Please check here if the access problem is about a service - for example, you cannot get a library service because of a disability, or you asked for a reasonable modification of a policy, practice or procedure in order to obtain DC Public Library services, but were denied one.

☐ Communication Access - Please check here if the access problem involves communication - for example, you need an interpreter, materials in alternative formats, or other auxiliary aids and services in order to have equal access to a DC Public Library service or program.

☐ Employment – Please check here if the problem relates to your employment or application with the DC Public Library – for example, you were denied a reasonable accommodation by your employer.
