Library Privileges and Responsibilities

- This card enables the registrant to borrow materials, reserve computers and access information online. It is valid at any DC Public Library.
- Registrant is responsible for all library materials checked out using their card.
- All materials should be returned promptly.
- Cardholders 20 years old and above will be responsible for paying any fees assessed for overdue, lost or damaged materials.
- Failure to return materials, pay fees or replace damaged or lost materials can result in suspension of borrowing privileges. The Library may resort to legal action to retrieve overdue materials or obtain payment for lost or damaged materials.
- Lost cards and changes of address, including email address, should be reported promptly.
- The card is the property of the DC Public Library. There is a replacement charge for a lost card.
- DC Public Library is not responsible for lost, stolen or abandoned cards.

I have read and understand the above statement of library privileges and responsibilities.
